

Season 2 Episode 8

There Might Have Been Giants

Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon are walking down the street in the crazy town and buildings have large chunks of them broken off. Some buildings look completely destroyed. Jake said, "What could have done all this?" Annie said, "Something must have done this." Isaac said, "Maybe the wrecking ball driver dozed off again while on the job." Wayon said, "Destroyed the city has been but who could have been seen?" Construction people show up and they repair the damages to the buildings. They see the mayor standing outside a broken-up office building. They walk past the mayor and the mayor stops them. The mayor said, "Giants are in town." They stop and they turn to the mayor. Annie said, "Giants?" The mayor said, "Giants are running all over the town. They are smashing buildings and destroying your property. Everything is at stake." Jake said, "What are we going to do about it?" The mayor said, "Run around like idiots and panic." Annie gives the mayor a stern look. Isaac and Wayon yell and they run around in circles with their hands flailing around and they crash into each other. Annie pushes Isaac and Wayon apart and Annie said, "Panicking like this is not going to do anything. We need to figure out who these giants are and where they are going to strike next. We need to stop them." Jake said, "Why is it always us that has to stop them?" Annie said, "Who else is going to stop them, TV?" Jake said, "Good point."

Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon are in the friendship place and TV is standing at the center of attention. TV said, "These monsters on the TV..." TV stretches out his arms. TV said, "These monsters are so large they can crush whole city blocks with their feet." People flinch in shock. TV grabs a toy sword. TV waves the sword around. TV said, "I will be the one that slays the monsters and brings them to their knees." Annie takes the center stage and she said, "TV, aren't there also ghosts that eat away at little boys that watch TV too?" TV said, "There are monsters that eat boys too?" TV gets up and he flails his legs rapidly. He runs to the phone on the side of the wall and he picks it up and he dials 911. The operator said, "911, what is your emergency?" TV said, "Whahh, whahh?" The operator said, "TV, I'll connect you to your mom." TV's mother takes the line. TV said, "Mama, I need you. There are ghosts that are going to eat me because I watch too much TV and..." His mom said, "Now calm down, TV. Everything is going to be okay." Annie looks at TV and then she looks at everyone else. Annie said, "Now everyone, I have a map here of the town." Annie lays out the map of the town on the table. Certain parts of the map are marked with red marker. Annie said, "The red spots are the spots that have significant damage. We need to see what these spots have in common, so we will have an idea as to where the giants will strike next. We see they struck the abandoned office building, they struck an undersold condo complex, a movie theater that shows nothing but crappy movies." Jake looks at the map and he scratches his head. Jake said, "I don't get it." Annie said, "What could all those places have in common?" Isaac said, "That they are all boring, stupid and useless." Jake said, "Now is not the time to joke." Annie said, "He's got it!

That is exactly what all these places have in common. They are all places that serve no significant purpose to the community or to society, so it would not make much of a difference if they were destroyed. City hall is perfectly intact. I bet the mayor had something to do with it.” Jake said, “When is it never the mayor behind anything?”

The mayor is in his office and he is at his desk while cool hip early 2000’s looking people stand around his desk. The mayor said, “I’m glad you all went over with my plan. We have the whole town living in fear now because of you.” People all over the town shake in fear as they walk down the street and they panic at the sight of plants and stray cats. The mayor said, “Now we can proceed with the next phase of my plan. We are going to start building calming booths. These booths will make people feel calm and relaxed to a point where they spill out their dumb ideas and stupid thoughts. I will film this and show this to the people that give me my funding and they will give me a promotion for sure. We need to start building these. In the meantime, I will continue to give the town things to be scared of.”

Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon walk down the street. They hear the sound of a gun clicking and it is a fat man with a water gun. He yells, “Go away, monsters!” He pulls the trigger and the water cartridge falls out. Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon run away from him. They run past a building and a large chunk falls off the top of it and it smashes to the ground and it barely misses, Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon. They stop at one end of the street and the sky suddenly goes dark. They see gargoyles flying all over the place and they see ghouls come up from the ground. Jake begins to shake in fear. He jumps into Annie’s arms. Isaac and Wayon do Kung Fu poses. A large giant appears in the background and he grabs the top of a building off. He throws it at Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon and it misses them again. Annie rolls to the side and she drops Jake. Jake falls to the ground sucking his thumb.

A ghoulish figure appears behind Jake and he said, “Do you want a jawbreaker?” Jake said, “I will give you one.” Jake punches the ghoulish figure in the side of the head and the ghoulish figure said, “Ouch!” He falls down and a mask falls off his head revealing he is one of those cool guys from the mayor’s office. Jake scratches his head and he said, “Wait, who are you?” The man grabs his mask and he runs away.” Jake raises his right hand and he jumps into the air and he begins to fly around the flying gargoyles. Jake grabs onto the wings of one of them and he aims the gargoyle at another one and they crash into each other and they just spin around and they reveal they are on strings. Fog begins to enter the place making it impossible to see anything. Jake falls back to the ground. Jake sees silhouettes of ghouls. Jake runs through them and he attempts to fight them. They grab onto his head and they hold him in place. Jake said, “Let me go.”

The fog clears up and Jake sees he was trying to fight his friends. Jake said, “Oh, it’s you.” Annie said, “I know this is a set up. Look over there.” Annie points to the mayor’s people in costumes. The mayor enters the scene. The mayor said, “It looks like you guys have figured out my secret. You must not tell anyone about this. I will make sure that does not happen. You are working for me.” The mayor picks up Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon in his fists and he throws them in the back of a hearse and drives off.

The mayor takes them to the cemetery on the outskirts of town. The mayor said, “Remember this place? This is where you are going to work for now on. I want you to use these metal rods as supports to stand my new screen. The whole town will see this screen and they will be scared with the things that will be shown on it. I also have artificial rain production units I stole from a TV studio. They will make rain here, so you will have to work in the rain.” Annie said, “What is the purpose of that?” The mayor said, “I thought you of all people would know about this by now. My only goal in life is to make all of your lives a living hell. See you all later.” The mayor gets into the hearse and it does not turn on. The mayor said, “Why won’t this blasted thing turn on?” The engine explodes into a cloud of ghostly smoke. The mayor gets out of the car. He takes out his cell phone and the screen shows that there is no signal here. The mayor said, “This is just great. It looks like I have to sit here and watch you work on the stands for my new TV.”

Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon work on the stands and they build them to a great height where anyone could see anything from. The mayor said, “Grand. I love it. Now it is time to put the TV up there.” The mayor gets into a helicopter and he flies it over to the supports and the helicopter carries the TV on it. He places it on the supports. He faces downwards looking at where the TV is going. He then looks ahead and he sees a giant. The mayor freaks out and he spins the copter around. The giant picks up the copter and he smashes it into the ground. The TV stays on the supports. Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon see the giant. The giant roars and it chases after Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon. Annie stays still while, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon begin to run away. Jake said, “Are you coming?” Annie said, “I have a feeling that this is just part of the set up.” The giant picks up Annie and it gets a tight grip on Annie. The giant throws Annie down his throat and she ends up in the giant’s stomach. Jake said, “I don’t think this is a trick anymore.” Jake, Isaac, and Wayon bolt away and they run down the street.

They run through the street. They see an ice cream truck on the side of the street. Isaac runs in it and he throws the ice cream man out of the truck and Jake and Wayon jump in too. Isaac drives the ice cream truck down the street. He makes a sharp turn and then he makes another sharp turn and the giant continues to follow them. Jake said, “I think he is gaining on us. What are we going to do?” Isaac said, “We could give ourselves up and have us be killed by that monster over there. Unless you have an idea that is much better.” Jake said, “I know I can think of something better.” The giant sticks out his hand and he grabs onto the back of the ice cream truck. Isaac floors the truck and it does nothing. Jake, Isaac, and Wayon jump out of the truck and they roll out onto the street. The giant throws the ice cream truck and it crashes into the mayor’s office.

Jake, Isaac, and Wayon are still running down the street and they skip over debris from a building and they jump over a car that was tipped over. They run down a dead-end street and they are cornered. There is no escape. The monster runs to them. Jake said, “Are we doomed?" Isaac said, "I think we are. I think we are going to get eaten at this point." Wayon said, "There must be something we can do, and it might just involve glue." Jake spots a tub of glue sitting on the side of the street. Jake grabs onto it and he pours it down the street. He runs through the giant's legs and he keeps covering the streets in the glue. The giant steps in the glue and he gets stuck in it. Jake and Isaac run past the giant and Wayon stops and he goes to fight the giant. Wayon smacks the giant in the side of his body and he runs up the giant and he smashes the giant in the head and the giant picks up Wayon and he places him in his mouth and he gulps him down. Jake said, "Now he has Wayon too!" Isaac looks at Jake and he said, "Do you want to be my new sidekick?" Jake gives Isaac a stern look and he said, "In your dreams."

The giant tries hard to move out of the glue. His feet are still stuck to the glue and his feet rip the ground pavement off and he continues to chase after Jake and Isaac. They run down the street and the giant catches up to them. Jake said, "What to do, what to do?" Isaac spots the comic book store. Isaac said, "Want to spend our last moments alive at the comic book store where we can read comics and look at collectables and argue about them with nerds?" Jake said, "I guess that's a good way to go out." Jake and Isaac enter the comic book store. They look through aisles of comic books. Isaac makes a stack of comic books. Isaac holds up one of them. Isaac said, "Look at this, Polverine in the Z-Men. He is just some disgruntled wrestler that joins some team filled with freaks called the Z-Men. Now here is Patriotic Admiral. This is just the government giving us more propaganda. Here is Dredduel, now this is a super hero. He does not care about anyone but himself. He kicks butt and destroys his enemies in the most wicked and radical ways possible." Jake holds up a Cho the Bobcat comic. Jake said, "I like Cho the Bobcat the most." Isaac said, "C'mon, you like that lame stuff. He's a cat that is not even funny. He loves everything, even Mondays."

The giant rips the roof off the comic store and he grabs onto Jake and Isaac. The store owner confronts the giant and he is dressed as a comic character that fights giants. The store owner said, "Come down here before me as you will be slayed. I will not give up without a fight. I will defend my friends since it is the greater good and..." The giant gets so annoyed by the store owner that he puts down Jake and Isaac and he grabs the store owner and he eats him. Jake and Isaac are back out on the street and they run down the street. They see the TV they had to set up is up and it is showing a few second cartoon of a bomb going down a monster's throat and it explodes causing the monster to explode. The giant turns his attention to Jake and Isaac and the monster sees the TV and he suddenly begins to weaken. His arms shrink, and his body shrinks and he explodes and goop from his body splashes everywhere. Annie and Wayon are sitting on the street and they are covered in goop. Annie tries to brush it off her. Annie said, "This is the worst trip I ever took." Isaac sees Wayon and he said, "It looks like I don't need a replacement sidekick after all."

Jake said, "How did the monster explode?" TV runs into the scene and he huffs and puffs. TV said, "I could answer that. As I was saying earlier, I know all about monsters and giants from watching TV. I knew that viewing ways to die scares them and it causes them to have a meltdown which causes them to literally explode. It looks like I saved the town and saved your lives from certain doom. You should thank me.” Annie said, “Thanks for saving me I guess.” Jake said, “I never would have guessed that TV would be the one that would save us from a tragedy.” Isaac and Wayon reunite and they walk out of the scene. Annie and Jake walk out of the scene past TV. Jake pats TV on the shoulder and he said, “You did good kid.” The mayor is bent and twisted in a weird way and he is stuck in the helicopter that got all destroyed. The mayor said, “Will someone, anyone help me?”
